

WAGOLL

Dear Mr Wonka,

I am writing to you to express my disgust in the treatment of my child Veruca Salt. Shockingly, Mr Salt has informed me that Veruca is stuck at the bottom of your unique chocolate factories garbage shoot.

Firstly, I understand that Veruca should not have stepped over the safety barrier. However, should you not have better safety restrictions in place? Imagine how Veruca felt when your vicious squirrels launched at her and frantically dragged her across the floor. Her nails clawed the ground as she desperately tried to escape, pleading with her father to help her.

In the blink of an eye, Veruca was launched down the garbage shoot like a bad nut. Rapidly, she whizzed down the shoot until she eventually reached the end and was surrounded with dirty garbage.

This experience will have traumatised my daughter and she will change her ungrateful and spoilt behaviour as a consequence. Therefore, can you find it in your heart to free Veruca from the garbage shoot? Everyone deserves a second chance!

Yours Sincerely,
Mrs Salt
